Frequently Asked Questions

When do I have to be there?

Staff members need to arrive at camp the morning of June 23rd and may leave the afternoon of August 13th.

How much will I get paid?

Starting pay for first year staff members in most positions is $225 per week. Salaries increase with each additional year of experience. Starting pay for those in leadership positions is $300 per week.

Will I get time off?

Most staff members are off from Saturday morning after the camp session ends until we get back together for the next session on Sunday afternoon. Time off during the week is limited and varies with the type of job you have at the camp.

Where will I live?

Most staff members will live in cabins with the campers. Each cabin sleeps ten and has its own restrooms with showers. Some staff will also be housed in the camp's two lodges.

What about meals?

At The Camp we've developed a reputation for great food. Our dining hall offers a variety of nutritious meals and can accommodate those with special dietary needs. Staff members receive meals at no cost.

Will I get training?

Prior to the campers arriving, staff members receive a week of intensive training. The training includes a wide range of topics including outdoor skills, child development and leadership. In addition, staff members attend weekly training throughout the summer.

BCH Staff Questions & Answers

What do you expect at a Christian camp?

We ask that you be a person of Christian faith who is willing to share that faith with campers. We'll also expect that you live a Christian lifestyle and serve as a role model while you work at camp.

What if I'm not from the Episcopal Church?

While we are a ministry of the Episcopal Church we actively seek staff members from a variety of faith backgrounds. We value diversity in beliefs and the sharing and exploration of faith issues that diversity brings.

Who will I work with?

Our summer staff is a team effort between our year round staff, our summer staff and volunteers. Our summer staff is primarily college students from throughout the country. We also have several international members on our staff.

What if I have questions?

If you have questions or need additional information please give the Executive Director, John Erdman, a call at (603) 547-3400 or e-mail him at camp@bchcenter.org
